Alex is the Coordinator of Youth & Young Adult Services for the Rockland County Pride Center. She is the founding mother of the Pride Center's LGBTQ+ Youth Program, which provides a web of community care and healing that centers the needs of Black, Latin, Transgender, and Non-Binary youth. Alex has more than two decades of experience in community organizing, performance, and therapeutic beauty practices.

The Rockland County Pride Center is a 501(c)(3) LGBTQ+ (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer) organization with an anti-racist, social justice mission. Their purpose is to support and celebrate the LGBTQ+ community, challenge stereotypes and practices that adversely impact Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, and Queer people, and provide a wide range of services to ensure equitable resources and opportunities for all – with no exceptions. Rockland County Pride Center began as a VCS Gay Pride Rockland, part of VCS Inc's initiative to implement social justice, anti-oppression programming throughout Rockland County. Rockland County Pride became its own independent organization in July 2016 and continues to partner with VCS.
